TECHNICAL INNOVATION JOINS FORCES WITH PATCHAMP TO DELIVER NEXT GENERATION
PATCHING AND DISTRIBUTION SYSTEMS

After exhaustive review, Technical Innovation's Broadcast Solutions Group has selected Patchamp (www.patchamp.com) as a "Platinum Level Partner." Patchamp prewired patching and distribution frames will be used on jobs designed and integrated by Technical Innovation.

Michael Wright, Vice President of the group states, "Patchamp products represent the next generation of innovative solutions we intend to bring to bear in our client's projects. Based on industry standard ADC components, these prefabricated systems will allow us to provide excellence for our customers in both project design and speed of completion."

Dick White, Vice President of Engineering at TI says, "We have been exhaustive in our evaluation of this manufacturer's offerings. We find in every way that the Patchamp product meets and exceeds our stringent requirements and those of our clients."
